

A recently headline caught my attention on the news feed:

Swinging Britain: Secret world of sex parties

“Increasingly there is less of a stigma associated with swinging,” says George Wells, of Fever Parties, which organises “upmarket” events in London costing up to £150 per couple.

... While swinging still attracts mainly middle-class couples in their 40s and 50s, it is also said to be appealing to more young people with an adventurous approach to sex. A feature of events organised by Fever, catering only for the under-40s, is often a “playroom” with a huge bed as a centrepiece.”

Wells is also keen to scotch the myth that partner swapping is only for couples locked in stale marriages, adding: “It is really just something else to do together, like going on holiday, and nothing to be ashamed of.

It is claimed there are more than 300 clubs and organisations involved but there is still a veil of secrecy. Organisers claim they have Premier League footballers, politicians and other celebrities among their regulars, but complete discretion is assured.

A whole etiquette and terminology has also grown up around swinging which normally involves genuine couples. It is not unusual for a singleton to bring along a friend of the opposite sex, simply to gain access.

Arriving as a couple is de rigeur but once settled it is customary not to be too clingy. In the swinging fraternity anyone who doesn't get involved is described as “vanilla” – bland. Supporters insist that it allows for sexual variety while remaining in a stable, loving relationship.

They claim it can remove the need for an affair. Emma Styles, 52, author of First Tango In Paris, about her swinging exploits at home and abroad with husband Paul, 53, says: “The jealousy angle was never an issue. I enjoyed seeing other attractive women sexually attracted to Paul, safe in the knowledge that he was mine. It was a boost to both our egos that after seven years of marriage we were both still attracted to and desired by others.”

The couple, who live in Kew, south-west London and have two children, regularly slipped away to France to indulge their partner-swapping fantasies.

Emma, whose first swinging encounter was shortly before her 30th birthday, does not hide behind a pseudonym and adds: “It was the perfect situation to let go of any inhibitions and to fulfil any desires you might wish at the time. I discovered that this sexual freedom strengthened our marriage.

“It keeps things fresh and frisky. We look upon swinging as a kind of hobby. Many of our friends were so intrigued that they followed in our pioneering footsteps.”

On the Continent swinging is much more prevalent and it is said that in France, Germany and Italy there is a club in almost every large town. There are even swingers' cruises. Here there are no particular swinging hotspots, although the A1 corridor through Hertfordshire and Bedfordshire is gaining a reputation.

This Article brought remembrance to a passage in the Book of Jasher telling how deep the people's sins were before the Lord. In Jasher Chapter XVII verses 11 – 15 it mentions that they had a swingers party for 7 cities four times a year from morning to night. They would bring their wives and daughters and watch as their neighbors sexually went after them – probably as the husband was sexually attacking some other person's wife.

Sodom and Gemorrah is known by its attempt of homosexual attack against the 2 Angels of God however the book of Jasher adds Adultery and general fornication (sex outside of marriage).

Jesus wont' discriminate if you are a straight swinger committing adultery on your wife or a homosexual swinger.

The bible states the the soul that sins will die:

KJV Ezekiel 18:20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die.

Before one judges that all homosexuals should be punished for their lifestyle choices then one should stop and say that all the "straight" adulterous and fornications should be punished as well. Television is filled with shows uplifting up the womanizer and easy carefree sex. The books are stacked high at the bookstores peddling smut. Songs on the radio have people jumping in and out of bed with strangers.

Christians are under attack from all quarters and our enemy is encouraging & promoting Christians to engage in these sexual sins in order for Jesus to destroy His people.

A Christian should be restricting his viewing of adultery on TV, Movies, magazines and stop listening to music promoting this death lifestyle. This carefully how you walk in your Christian life.

Book of Jasher

Chapter XVIII

11. In those days all the people of Sodom and Gomorrah, and of the whole five cities, were exceedingly wicked and sinful against the Lord, and they provoked the Lord with their abominations, and they strengthened in acting abominably and scornfully before the Lord, and their wickedness and crimes were in those days great before the Lord.

12. And they had in their land a very extensive valley, about half a day's walk, and in it there were fountains of water and a great deal of herbage surrounding the water.

13. And the people of Sodom and Gomorrah went there four times in the year, with their wives and children and all belongings to them, and they rejoiced there with timbrels and dances.

14. And in the time of rejoicing they would all rise and lay hold of their neighbor's wives, and some, the virgin daughters of their neighbors, and they enjoyed them, and each man saw his wife and daughter in the hands of his neighbor and did not say a word.

15. And they did so from morning to night, and the afterwards returned home each man to his house and each woman to her tent; so they always did four times in the year
