

Ambassadors for Christ

Jesus has plans for your life (Jer29:11) written before the foundations of the earth (Ps139:16). He has planted you where you are to perform some “good works” in His Kingdom (Eph2:10). We are called “Ambassadors for Christ” (2 Cor 5:20). Ambassadors represent the ruler of a country. We represent God Almighty here on earth. What an awesome responsibility. To be “called, chosen and faithful” (Rev17:14) to do his will.

We can reject that calling like Moses did. Moses said he couldn't speak well (Ex4:10,13) and to send another.

“10 Then Moses said to the LORD, “Please, Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither recently nor in time past, nor since You have spoken to Your servant; for I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.””, “13 But he said, “Please, Lord, now send the message by whomever You will.””

Bad mistake. The bible then states: “Then the anger of the LORD burned against Moses...” (Ex4:14).

Imagine the creator of all seen and unseen burning with anger towards you. Who would you go to for protection? No where.

Moses was given a second chance for service but Moses was never healed of his speech problems as the Lord was promising him in Ex4:11-12.

Who knows if another opportunity comes by if you “pass” on the invitation from Jesus to do His Kingdom work.

How could Moses resistance to the invitation been changed if he lived in the present day? Or how could you change yourself to be ready to open that door for Kingdom service when Jesus comes knocking (Rm4:17)?

One possible way is to join a local Toastmaster club. You need help if you have a problem standing up and speaking. If you fear speaking to a group about a non-gospel topic then why do you think that fear will go when you have to speak on a gospel topic? You are called an Ambassador for Christ. Ambassadors speak all the time. Christ directs his Ambassadors to “...Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation.” (Mark16:15). How can you preach if you don't want to speak to anyone? What Kingdom use are you if you sit and remain silent as those around you are on the conveyer belt to the final fiery furnace?

A person actively participating in a toastmaster club develops the confidence to stand up before a small group or before rulers. One should make it a point to never deny any opportunity to speak about the bible when the invitation is presented. Each speaking opportunity increases the confidence you have. Even a discussion with someone opposed to your views gains you knowledge in the verses you need to study and remember to strengthen your stance for the Lord.

Get rid of the fear of public speaker and get ready to be used by the Lord Jesus himself!
