Democrats have 2.4 times more dammed people than the Republicans

The Rise of the None-ites has made steady gains in their ranks while the Christian ranks are thinning. Who are the None-ites? They are persons who are dropping out of being connected to any form of Christian church, worship or acknowledgment of God.

This study will cover the reason why this group is rising and the ramifications of this rise to the person, family and nation.

The Pew Research Center (PRC) boils the rise of the Nones based on 3 theories:

Theory No. 1: Political Backlash
Theory No. 2: Delays in Marriage
Theory No. 3: Secularization

The first two theories are a rabbit trail in my view. The third theory – Secularization of the US is the gold mine. The PRC mentions on theory 3:

Publics in countries with a high gross domestic product (per capita) tend to be less religious, while publics in countries with a low GDP tend to be more religious. But as Pew Global Attitudes noted in a 2007 report, Americans are a major exception to the rule, because the U.S. has both high GDP per capita and high levels of religious commitment. Nonetheless, some theorists view the rise of the unaffiliated as a sign that secularization is advancing in America.<sup>23</sup> (pages 29-32)

<sup>23</sup> Norris and Inglehart, Ibid, pages 89-95. They offer a number of possible explanations for America's exceptional religiosity – asserting, in particular, that economic inequality and the perception of a porous social welfare net leave Americans feeling "greater anxieties" than citizens in other advanced industrial countries. They also mention "the fact that the United States was founded by religious refugees" and the continuing arrival of new immigrants who bring "relatively strong religiosity with them." Ibid, pages 107-108 and 225-226.

The core founding population of our nation were people coming to not for separation of church and state but to set up a Godly government "...Having undertaken, for the glory of God, and advancement of the Christian faith...and combine our selves together into a civil body politic, for our better ordering and preservation and furtherance of the ends aforesaid;..." as the Mayflower Compact states

That blessing that we had as a cohesive Christian nation is wearing off.
Ps33:12 states that a nation is Blessed if Jesus is their God.

KJV Psalms 33:12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

As the Christian population declines and people who do not recognize any god increases in number then the curses of Dt28:14-68 falls upon a nation. Curses also fall upon the children of that nation as Hos4:6 states. Psalms9:20 defines nations getting the same punishment as a person Ps9:17.

RSV Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.

RSV Psalms 9:20 Put them in fear, O Lord! Let the nations know that they are but men!Selah

KJV Psalms 9:17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

170 million people plan to celebrate Halloween in a few days. The 2012 population of the US is roughly 313 million so 54% of the US population intends to engage in the pagan high un-holy day called Halloween.

Is this mere innocent fun? What's the harm in dressing up in costumes and having some fun?

If you're beginning your holiday planning schedule for Thanksgiving (US), Christmas and New Years, that's great news. But you may be leaving some dollars behind. In this rough economy, people need an excuse to take a break. And according to the latest National Retail Federation survey, a record 170 million people plan to celebrate Halloween this year. The average person will spend $79.82 on decorations, costumes and candy, up from $72.31 last year, with total Halloween spending expected to reach $8.0 billion.

Read more: <http://www.marketingtechblog.com/2012-halloween-spending/#ixzz2AGLpZ5q7>

It all starts off innocent enough. The parent's have been raised in a culture foreign to our founding Puritan forefathers who didn't celebrate Halloween.

Going into a Halloween store in Austin they had lots of costumes. For the toddlers the parents dress their babies into puppies, angels or other cute animal. What's the harm? On TV, all the children shows seem to be playing Halloween themed shows. Again, what's the harm, lots of laughs and enjoyment. This is the initial hook, or snare that is laid out.

Walking further into the Halloween store to an older age group (12-14 years old) the puppy and angel costumes are replaced with witches of various kinds (white, black, dancing...) for the females. For males there are a plethora of skulls, pirate costumes.

Gone are the innocent toddler costumes and into the open rebellion of desiring to be a part of the wicked group that God says that he hates.

Also at this age the consuming of Harry Potter, Twilight books and movies. It's been said that if one reads all the Harry Potter books then they will have the equivalent of 3 years occult training (other sites say more). The movies and books give the children the desire to dress up in witchcraft costumes.

Advancing thru the Halloween store, the college age and up females can select from a large assortment of sexy witches. Males can select from a wide range of ghouls, slashers and warlocks (male witches). What was also troubling is the displays that one could purchase to put on their front yard. One display was a rotting corpse rocking a ghoulish baby back and forth along with skulls.

Is this acceptable behavior for a Christian? With all the skulls and death centered around Halloween brings to mind Prov8:35 since if you love the day of death then you hate Jesus

KJV Proverbs 8:36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

. Spending your part of the 8 billion dollars is helping the occultism industry and 2Chron19:2 comes into play since supporting the wicked causes a curse to come down on you.

KJV 2 Chronicles 19:2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord.

Jesus said in Mt6:24 that you can't serve 2 masters and time and time again, God's people, the Israelites, forsook God and choose Baal and in doing so ruined themselves Jer2:11 and 1Cor15:33-34

RSV Matthew 6:24 "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

KJV Jeremiah 2:11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

RSV 1 Corinthians 15:33-34

33 Do not be deceived: "Bad company ruins good morals."

34 Come to your right mind, and sin no more. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

There is a false doctrine in many churches that satan is either not real, he doesn't exist or has no power. The bible has many description of the power of the witches. In Ex17:8-16 the Israelites fought with the Amalekites and the Israelites could only prevail when Moses had his staff held up in the air. Why? The book of Jasher in 81:52-55 fills in the details on this battle. The Amalekites came with magicians and conjurers. Why did Moses have to lift up the staff or another question what made Moses staff have the ability to defeat the magicians and conjurers? The staff of Moses in Jasher77:38-51 was described of being used by Jesus to create the heaven and the earth. Jesus gave the staff to Adam, which eventually got into the hands of Noah. Noah gave it to Shem then to Abraham then to Isaac then to Jacob then to Joseph. Once Joseph died the staff got into the hands of Reul the Midianite which was where Moses fled to and found it. I suspect that Moses had to have it at the Exodus time due to the concentrated evil that they faced. Holding the staff in the air allowed it to work. If the staff is touching the ground then the power is grounded and cant' be used.

KJV Exodus 17:8-16

8 Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the Lord said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovahnissi:

16 For he said, Because the Lord hath sworn that the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

Jasher 81:55-59 p232

:52 And when the children of Israel were in Rephidim, Amalek the son of Eliphaz, the son of Esau, the brother of Zepho, came to fight with Israel.

:53 And he brought with him eight hundred and one thousand men, magicians and conjurers, and he prepared for battle with Israel in Rephidim.

:55 And the children of Israel smote Amalek and his people at the edge of the sword, but the battle was sore upon the children of Israel.

:58 Remember what Amalek has done to thee in the road when thou wentest forth from Egypt.

:59 Who met thee in the road and smote thy rear, even those that were feeble behind thee when thou wast faint and weary.

Jasher 77 pg220-221

:38 And afterward Moses went into the garden of Reul which was behind the house, and he there prayed to the Lord his God, who had done mighty wonders for him.

:39 And it was that whilst he prayed he looked opposite to him, and behold a sapphire stick was placed in the ground, which was planted in the midst of the garden.

:40 And he approached the stick and he looked, and behold the name of the Lord God of hosts was engraved thereon, written and developed upon the stick.

:41 And he read it and stretched forth his hand and he plucked it like a forest tree from the thicket, and the stick was in his hand.

:42 And this is the stick with which all the works of our God were performed, after he had created heaven and earth, and all the host of them, seas, rivers and all their fishes.

:43 And when God had driven Adam from the garden of Eden, he took the stick in his hand and went and tilled the ground from which he was taken.

:44 And the stick came down to Noah and was given to Shem and his descendants, until it came into the hand of Abraham the Hebrew.

:45 And when Abraham had given all he had to his son Isaac, he also gave to him this stick.

:46 And when Jacob had fled to Padan-aram, he took it into his hand, and when he returned to his father he had not left it behind him.

:47 Also when he went down to Egypt he took it into his hand and gave it to Joseph, one portion above his brethren, for Jacob had taken it by force from his brother Esau.

:48 And after the death of Joseph, the nobles of Egypt came into the house of Joseph, and the stick came into the hand of Reul the Midianite, and when he went out of Egypt, he took it in his hand and planted it in his garden.

:49 And all the mighty men of the Kinites tried to pluck it when they endeavored to get Zipporah his daughter, but they were unsuccessful.

:50 So that stick remained planted in the garden of Reul, until he came who had a right to it and took it.

:51 And when Reul saw the stick in the hand of Moses, he wondered at it, and he gave him his daughter Zipporah for a wife.

Another example in the bible was Rachel stealing her father's image when they fled across the desert. What is this image described in Gen 31:17-23? That image concerns witchcraft, sorcery, divination, child sacrifice. In Jasher 31:40-45 it speaks that these images could speak and could by witchcraft tell an answer accurately. Laban couldn't find his when he returned from his house so he got Jacob's location from another image.

KJV Genesis 31:17-23

17 Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;
18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padanaram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.
19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that were her father's.
20 And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.
21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face toward the mount Gilead.
22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.
23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

Jasher 31 pg 82-83

:40 And Rachel stole her father's images, and she took them and she concealed them upon the camel upon which she sat, and she went on.

:41 And this is the manner of the images; in taking a man who is the first born and slaying him and taking the hair off his head, and taking salt and salting the head and anointing it in oil, then taking a small tablet of copper or a tablet of gold and writing the name upon it, and placing the tablet under his tongue, and taking the head with the tablet under the tongue and putting it in the house, and lighting up lights before it and bowing down to it.

:42 And at the time when they bow down to it, it speaketh to them in all matters that they ask of it, through the power of the name which is written in it.

:43 And some make them in the figures of men, of gold and silver, and go to them in times known to them, and the figures receive the influence of the stars, and tell them future things, and in this manner were the images which Rachel stole from her father.

:44 And Rachel stole these images which were her father's, in order that Laban might not know through them where Jacob had gone.

:45 And Laban came home and he asked concerning Jacob and his household, and he was not to be found, and Laban sought his images to know where Jacob had gone, and could not find them, and he went to some other images, and he inquired of them and they told him that Jacob had fled from him to his father's, to the land of Canaan.

Right after the flood of Noah the book of Jubilees speak that the world was inundated with demons (In the book of Enoch, the demons came from the dead fallen angel & women cross breed.

When the human part died the spirit part lived on becoming demons which persecuted the human race) which were destroying the people on the earth.

Book of Jubilees Chap 10 p31-32

1. And in the third week of this jubilee the evil demons began to lead astray the sons of Noah and deceived them and destroyed them. 2. And the sons came to Noah their father and told him concerning the demons which were leading astray, darkening, and slaying the sons of their sons. 3. And he prayed before the Lord his God and he said: ....

4. And thou knowest how the Watchman, the fathers of these spirits, acted in my day; and these spirits also which are alive, cast them into prison and hold them in the places of judgment, and let them not destroy the sons of thy servant, my God, for they are terrible and created for destroying; and may they not rule over the spirits of the living; for thou alone knowest their judgment. 5. And let them have no sway over the children of the righteous from now on and to eternity. 6. And our God said unto us that we should bind all. 7. And the angel of the spirits, Mastema, came and said: "O Lord, Creator, leave some of them before me, and they shall hear my voice and they shall do all things that I tell them; for if thou dost not leave any of them to me I shall not be able to accomplish the power of my will among the children of men, for they are here for corrupting, and destroying, and leading astray before the judgment, for great is their wickedness to the children of me." 8. And he said: "The tenth part of them shall be left before him and nine parts shall descend into the place of judgment." 9. And one of us said: "we will teach Noah all their medicines;" for they did not walk in righteousness, and did not contend in uprightness. And we did according to his word; all the wicked ones that were terrible we bound in the place of judgment, but the tenth part of them we left, that they should be judged before Satan on the earth. 10. And the medicines of all their sicknesses we explained to Noah together with all their deceptions how to heal them with the plants of the earth. 11. And Noah wrote all these down in a book as we instructed him, concerning every kind of medicines and the evil spirits were held away from the sons of Noah. 12 And he gave all the writings which he had written to Shem, his oldest son, for him he loved exceedingly above all his children.

In one of the battles that the Israelites had against the Moabites the Moabite king was able to win over the Israelites by performing a human sacrifice 2Kg3:24-27. Eventually the Israelites adopted those pagan human sacrifices, divinations and enchantments 2Kg17:17-18.

KJV 2 Kings 3:24-27

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country. 25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it. 26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not. 27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

KJV 2 Kings 17:17-18

17 And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger. 18 Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.

All satan needs is a crack in your armor – if you have any armor put on.

In Greek mythology, when Achilles was a baby, it was foretold that he would die in battle. To prevent his death, his mother Thetis took Achilles to the River Styx which was supposed to offer powers of invulnerability and dipped his body into the water. But as Thetis held Achilles by the heel, his heel was not washed over by the water of the magical river. Achilles grew up to be a man of war who survived many great battles. But one day, a poisonous arrow shot at him was lodged in his heel, killing him shortly after.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Achilles'\_heel

That crack in your or your family's armor could come from participating in Halloween. That crack will eventually grow into a divide to separate you from Jesus. Jesus said in Mt10:32-33. An Iron wedge is placed into a natural wood crack when you split logs. As the wedge gets deeper and deeper into the wood the crack widens and then splits the wood in half.

KJV Matthew 10:32-33

32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

Witchcraft does have power associated with it. One can possess incredible strength as Mk5:1-9 mentions.

KJV Mark 5:1-9

1 And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

The power that Jesus offers is greater than that which the demons can produce. Paul was kicking the demons out in Acts19:11-12. This power is only available to true Christians. In verses 13-16 some non-Jesus believing Jews tried to tap into the power of Jesus and got tore up by the demons. The wicked Jews couldn't tap into the power of Jesus.

KJV Acts 19:11-16

11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

The Light and The Glory: 1492-1793, Peter Marshall and David Manuel, Revell, 2009

A very valuable faith restoring/building book about the forming of America from 1492 to 1793. The book gives evidence upon evidence that Satan was very active early in our countries early days. One example on page 283 says:

In the night, he [Morse] was pulled by the hair and pinched and scratched... and blows that fetched blood were sometimes given him... A little boy belonging to the family was the principal sufferer of these molestations, for he was flung about at such a rate, they feared his brains would have been beaten out... all the knives which belonged to the house were one after another stuck into his back, which the spectators pulled out... The poor boy was divers times thrown into the fire, and preserved from scorching there, with much ado... once the fist beating the man was discernible, but they could not catch hold of it... and another time, a drumming on the boards was heard, which was followed with a voice that sang, "Revenge! Revenge! Sweet is revenge!" At this, the people being terrified, called upon God, whereupon there followed a mournful note, "Alas, alas, we knock no more, we knock no more!" and there was an end of all"

The instances of possession were as violent and tenacious as any we had ever read or heard of. The thirteen-year-old daughter of John Goodwin of Boston was such a difficult case that it actually took weeks of battling to gain her deliverance. And the final struggle was won only after several ministers fasted and prayed at length together. Mather relates:

When we went into prayer, the demons would throw her on the floor at the feet of him who prayed, where she would whistle and sing and yell to drown out the voice of prayer, and she would fetch blows with her fist and kicks with her foot at the man that prayed. But still her fist and foot would always recoil when they came within an inch or tow of him, as if rebounding against a wall... At last the demons put her upon saying that she was dying, and the matter proved such that we feared she really was, for she lay, she tossed, she pulled, just like one dying... and they one particular minister... set himself to serve them [the Goodwin family] in the methods prescribed by our Lord Jesus Christ. Accordingly, the Lord being besought thrice in three days of prayer, with fasting on this occasion, the family then saw their deliverance perfected. And the children afterwards, all of them, not only proved themselves devout Christians, but unto the praise of God, reckoned these their afflictions among the special incentives of their Christianity.

Foxe's Book of Martyrs, John Foxe, 1981, Whitaker House, chapter Early Christians p21-25
The Christians were suffering great persecutions and many were put to death for not swearing to Ceaser. Such as was Polycarp, the bishop of Smyrna. The Roman government kept trying to get Polycarp to swear to Caesar:

There met him the irenarch Herod, and his father Nicetes, who taking him up into their chariot, began to exhort him, saying, 'What harm is it to say "Lord Caesar," and to sacrifice, and save yourself?' At first he was silent: but being pressed to speak, he said, 'I will not do as you advise me.' When they saw that he was not to be persuaded, they gave him rough language, and pushed him hastily down, so that in descending from the chariot he grazed his shin. But he, unmoved as if he had suffered nothing, went on cheerfully, under conduct of his guards, to the Stadium. There the noise being so great that few could hear anything, a voice from heaven said to Polycarp, 'Be strong, Polycarp, and play the man.' No one saw him that spake, but many people heard the voice.

The proconsul attempted to persuade Polycarp again but Polycarp wouldn't budge. Finally the proconsul passed sentence:

The proconsul sent the herald to proclaim thrice in the middle of the Stadium 'Polycarp hath professed himself a Christian.' Which words were no sooner spoken, but the whole multitude, both of Gentiles and Jews, dwelling at Smyrna, with outrageous fury shouted aloud 'This is the doctor of Asia, the father of the Christians, and the subverter of our gods, who hath taught many not to sacrifice nor adore.'... They then unanimously shouted, that he should be burnt alive. ... The people immediately gathered wood and other dry matter from the workshops and baths: in which service the Jews (with their usual malice) were particularly forward to help.

When they would have fastened him to the stake, he said, 'Leave me as I am; for he who giveth me strength to sustain the fire, will enable me also, without your securing me with nails, to remain without flinching in the pile.' Upon which they bound him without nailing him. So that said thus: - 'O Father, I bless thee that thou hast counted me worthy to receive my portion among the number of martyrs.'

As soon as he had uttered the word 'Amen,' the officers lighted the fire. The flame forming the appearance of an arch, as the sail of a vessel filled the wind, surrounded, as with a wall, the body of the martyr; which was in the midst, not as burning flesh, but as gold and silver refining in the furnace. We received also in our nostrils such a fragrance as proceeds from frankincense or some other precious perfume. At length the wicked people, observing that his body could not be consumed with the fire, ordered the confector to approach and to plunge his sword into the body, Upon this such a quantity of blood gushed out, that the fire was extinguished....

In the same persecution suffered the glorious and most constant martyrs of Lyons and Vienne, two cities in France; giving a glorious testimony, and to all Christian men a spectacle or example of singular fortitude in Christ our Saviour.

When one turns away from Jesus then Jesus will give you over to your heart's desires and let you have your depravity Rm1:28. You may be opening a door for demons to enter that you will never be able to shut. Think twice about participating in Halloween or any other pagan celebrations. Your thoughts and actions not only impact your life but also your family's and nation.

RSV Romans 1:28 And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a base mind and to improper conduct.

THE MAYFLOWER COMPACT

In the name of God, Amen. We whose names are under-written, the loyal subjects of our dread sovereign Lord, King James, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, etc.

Having undertaken, for the glory of God, and advancement of the Christian faith, and honor of our King and Country, a voyage to plant the first colony in the northern parts of Virginia, do by these presents solemnly and mutually, in the presence of God, and one of another, covenant and combine our selves together into a civil body politic, for our better ordering and preservation and furtherance of the ends aforesaid; and by virtue hereof to enact, constitute, and frame such just and equal laws, ordinances, acts, constitutions and offices, from time to time, as shall be thought most meet and convenient for the general good of the Colony, unto which we promise all due submission and obedience. In witness whereof we have hereunder subscribed our names at Cape Cod, the eleventh of November [New Style, November 21], in the year of the reign of our sovereign lord, King James, of England, France, and Ireland, the eighteenth, and of Scotland the fifty-fourth. Anno Dom. 1620.

KJV Micah 4:10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the Lord shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.
