

Babylonian Boy Scouts - October 11, 2014

In Feb of 2014 the Boy Scouts gave the highest rank of Eagle Scout to an openly gay 17 year old. This was a result of a 2013 National vote that shifted the organizations foundational beliefs. The boy scouts, in 2012, were still kicking out those scouts who came out of the closet.

(Feb 11, 2014) On Monday night, Boy Scout Troop 52 of Chevy Chase, one of the nation's oldest, formed a circle and gave Pascal Tessier sustained applause and some handshakes and pats on the back. His achievement comes just weeks after the organization lifted its ban on gay youth and may make him the first publicly gay Eagle approved under the new policy...

For more than a year, Tessier, who lives in the Washington, D.C., suburb of Kensington, has been one of the most prominent openly gay scouts speaking out to change the Scouts' longstanding ban. After a vote last year, the organization of 2.5 million youth members officially opened its doors to include all boys, regardless of sexual orientation. A ban on gay adult leaders remains in place.

In Oct 6 2012 article in the examiner had a story of 17 year Ryan Andresen who was kicked out of boy scouts and denied obtaining the Eagle Scout level since he came out of the closet...

The scoutmaster for Toop 212 in Moraga, Calif. Told Ryan's father, Eric, the troop's chief administrator, that his son would not be able to receive the award. The Boy Scouts of America have a long-standing policy denying membership to gay leaders Scouts, which they reaffirmed earlier this year after a two-year confidential review of controversial ban.

John Fenoglio, executive director of the Mt. Diablo Silverado Council, said Friday that Andresen's membership with the organization has been revoked.

In a statement, Fenoglio said simply that a Scout had notified his unit leadership and Eagle Scout counselor that he did not agree with Scouting's principle of "Duty to God" and does not meet the organization's "standard of sexual orientation." The statement also said the youth was being informed that he was no longer eligible for membership in Scouting.

People may say that the turning point for the Boy Scouts was the 2013 vote however The Boy Scouts didn't lose their morality in 2013 with the vote accepting homosexual youths. They lost it from the foundation of the organization.

Paul warned about how you lay the foundation since no other foundation can be laid. If the foundation is not built on the rock then Jesus said it'll be swept away when the storms come.

RSV 1 Corinthians 3:10-11

10 According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another man is building upon it. Let each man take care how he builds upon it.

11 For no other foundation can any one lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

RSV Matthew 7:26-27

26 And every one who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house upon the sand;

27 and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell; and great was the fall of it."

The foundation of the Boy Scouts was tested in 2013 and it wasn't built on Jesus Christ. If the Boy Scouts wasn't built on Jesus Christ then what was the foundation it was built on? The Jungle Book I and II by Rudyard Kipling.

"The Jungle Book tales also produce a powerful myth of male identity; they provided the inspiration for Robert Baden-Powell's world-renowned organization, the Boy Scouts" –p xv

"According to his own account, his childhood reading provided inspiration for The Jungle Books. Kipling explains that as a child, he 'somehow or other came across a tale about a lion-hunter in South Africa who fell in among lions who were all freemasons, and with them entered into a confederacy against some wicked baboons.' He continues, 'I think that, too, lay dormant until the Jungle Books began to be born' (p. 7). As in the lion-hunter's story, which R.L. Green, in Kipling and the Children, has identified as James Greenwood's tale 'King Lion'" –p xvii

Kipling's parents, Lockwood and Alice... children of Methodist ministers, they both rejected the faith of their fathers... Before her [Alice] marriage, Alice allegedly tossed a lock of hair belonging to the Evangelical preacher and founder of Methodism John Wesley into the fire, declaring, 'A hair of the dog that bit us!' –p xviii

Kipling joined the Freemasons' Lodge Hope and Perseverance No. 782 in Lahore in 1885 where he was nineteen, and through his life he embraced the Masons' ecumenical vision. The wolf pack into which Mowgli is inducted with much ceremony is called the 'Free People', a title that evokes the Freemasons. Like the Masons, Kipling's wolves refer to each other as 'brother,' and their fraternity crosses species line just as the Freemasons' fraternity crosses race and class lines...

Kipling repeated reference to the 'Masonic lions' of his childhood reading as a key influence on The Jungle Books also highlights the link between the Masons and the Jungle Book wolves. –p xxxii

The Jungle Books became a part of Cub Scouting vocabulary: for example, "The Law of the Pack," "Akela," "Wolf Cub," "Grand Howl," "Den," and "Bagheera."... Kipling himself became directly involved in the movement. He wrote the official Boy Scouts' song, "A Boy Scouts' Patrol Song," the content and cadence of which evokes the Law of the Jungle. –p xxxix

The Jungle Books, ISBN-13: 978-1-59308-109-6, 2004, Barnes & Noble Books

The high level overview of the Jungle books is as follows:

A tiger called Shere Khan scared off a toddler's parents. This toddler, called Mowgli ("the frog"), stumbles into a wolf den and begins sucking the teat of the Mother Wolf, Raksha. Raksha means "the Demon". Shere Khan crawls part way into the wolf den and both the Father and Mother Wolf stand up to the tiger.

Mowgli gets taken into the Wolf Pack Council held once a month (at full moon) where Akela the "great gray Lone Wolf" who leads the Pack by strength and cunning, allows Baloo (a bear) and Bagheera, (a black panther) to train Mowgli.

Mowgli is trained in all areas of the "law of the Jungle". How to speak to the other races of beasts: birds, snakes but not tree dwellers (monkeys, baboons...). Akela misses a kill when Mowgli is 12. The pack law states that the Wolf leader should be killed and another Wolf lead the pack. Mowgli saves Akela from being killed but is also forced out of the pack in the process. Mowgli leaves the jungle and goes to live in a village in a forest clearing.

Shere Khan, tracks Mowgli to the village with the intention to kill him. Grey Brother (one of Mowgli's den brothers) warns that Shere Khan is hunting him while Mowgli was out in the field tending the village's water buffalos. Mowgli springs into action once he hears that Shere Khan was resting in a ravine after a kill. Mowgli has Akela and Grey Brother to split the water buffalo herd in two. Grey Brother drives the cows and the young into the ravine's end to plug it up. Akela and Mowgli drive the bulls around to the top of the ravine. The bulls are then stampeded down the ravine crushing Shere Khan.

Mowgli skins Shere Khan and takes his hide back to the wolf council rock fulfilling a promise.

The Boy scouts use Den Mothers and Fathers (Mowgli's wolf parents were "Den" Mother and "Den" Father), Council meetings (the Wolves would gather together and howl - something I remembered doing while I was in boy scouts), Akela as the head of the Pack (the scouts pledge allegiance to Akela). They use the rankings from Tiger cub, wolf, bear, Webelos (wolf - bear - lion).

This is what the Boy Scouts used for their foundation - Freemasonry.

Freemasons worship Satan at the higher degrees. Instead of being founded on the solid Rock of Christ - the Boy Scout's ultimate foundation is Satan (whether or not they know it or not).

Below is the Cub Scout Promise which has the Cub Scouts say that they would obey the law of the Pack. The Law of the pack states that Cub Scouts follows Akela – not Jesus Christ.

Cub Scout Promise

I, (say your name), promise to DO MY BEST
To do my DUTY to GOD
And my Country
To HELP other people, and
To OBEY the LAW of the Pack

Law of the Pack

The Cub Scout follows Akela. (Akela should be changed to Jesus Christ)
The Cub Scout helps the pack go.
The pack helps the Cub Scout grow.
The Cub Scout gives goodwill.

Cub Scout Motto

DO YOUR BEST

Akela means "single or solitary" in Hindi (/wiki/Hindi). Jesus said that he was never alone (Jn16:32) and when we are immersed into the baptismal waters then we are infused with the Holy Spirit (Acts2:38) and we are not alone. Who is alone or separated forever from God? - Satan (Rev20:10).

KJV John 16:32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

KJV Revelation 20:10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

The Scout Oath specifically calls out the youth as a duty to God and to be morally straight. The scout law states a scout is to be reverent. The question I pose: What God does the boy scouts follow? What God is duty supposed to be directed to? What God sets the law for being morally straight and reverent?

Scout Oath (or Promise)

On my honor I will do my best
 To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
 To help other people at all times;
 To keep myself physically strong,
 mentally awake, and morally straight.

Scout Law

A Scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent.

<http://www.scouting.org/scoutsources/boyscouts.aspx>

What god? Pick your choice because the boy scouts doesn't discriminate. You can proudly achieve and wear the religious emblem of your god of your choice. The boy scouts have refused to acknowledge Jesus Christ as the only one to pray to. The boy scouts have joined themselves to the anti-Christ by tolerating and accepting anti-Christ youths.

Religious Emblems

"A Scout is reverent." All Scouts show this by being faithful in their duty to God. Some go further and give special service. This can qualify them for a religious emblem. Such an emblem is not a Scouting award. It is conferred on a Scout by his religious leader. Each faith has its own requirements for earning its emblem.

The definition of Anti-Christ is those who deny Jesus is the Christ - 1Jn2:22-23. All the above highlighted "faiths" deny that Jesus is the Christ and are defined by the bible as an antichrist. 2Cor6:14 states that you don't fellowship light and darkness or believers with unbelievers.

KJV 1 John 2:22-23

22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

RSV 2 Corinthians 6:14 Do not be mismated with unbelievers. For what partnership have righteousness and iniquity? Or what fellowship has light with darkness?

The Boy Scouts has 130 Merit badges (<http://www.scouting.org/meritbadges.aspx>) that a scout may earn. Not one of them is tied to the bible or Jesus or church.

(<http://www.scouting.org/scoutsource/CubScouts/CubScouts/UniformsAndAwards/sanda.aspx>)

The Boy Scouts has 25 awards that slip on the scout's belt loop & there's 28 pins that a scout can earn if they play sports as well – not one is connected to the bible. My point being that the Boy Scouts have promoted itself as a Christian organization but it doesn't promote Jesus Christ in any of it's literature, awards, pins, merit bages religious emblems... The Boy Scouts does not set Jesus Christ as the one true God when they accept all the other false gods and treat them as equal to Jesus.

Austin Texas has a brick and mortar Boy Scout store where you can buy items. What I didn't see in all the merit badges, sports pin & academic achievement belt loops was any reference to Jesus or the bible.

Each merit badge that a scout is earning should be connected to the bible in some form or fashion. The connection could be what types of ropes and knots the Israelites used on their boats, what type of knots the spies of Jericho could have used to tie the bits of ropes together or how to tie an anchor to rappel down the side of the walls.

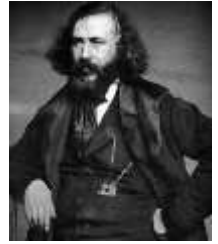

That was the thoughts that inspired me to write the Order of the Narrow Way study.

Parents should try and fit biblical passages, ideas, laws...in all the subjects or hobbies that the child is engaged in wherever they are at -Dt11:29.

KJV Dt11:29 And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

Summary so far: The Boy Scouts have laid their foundation on the Jungle Books. The Jungle Books have their foundation resting on Freemasonry. What is the foundation of Freemasonry? To get to that answer you have to ask a Mason. Not any ordinary Mason hanging out at your local masonic temple but one of its highest ranking past leaders – Albert Pike (12/29/1809 – 4/2/1891).

He first joined the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in 1840 then had in the interim joined a Masonic Lodge and became extremely active in the affairs of the organization, being elected Sovereign Grand Commander of the Scottish Rite's Southern Jurisdiction in 1859.^[6] He remained Sovereign Grand Commander for the remainder of his life (a total of thirty-two years), devoting a large amount of his time to developing the rituals of the order.^[10] Notably, he published a book called Morals and Dogma of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry [text at <http://www.sacred-texts.com/mas/md/md01.htm>] in 1871

Pike is still regarded in America as an eminent^[11] and influential^[12] Freemason, primarily only in the Scottish Rite Southern Jurisdiction.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Albert_Pike

What does the “Sovereign Grand Commander of the Scottish Rite” Albert Pike have to say about Freemasonry in his 811 page book “Morals and Dogma of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry”?

- Masonry is a search after Light. That search leads us directly back, as you see, to the Kabalah. –p524
- the Kabalah, the Gnostics, and the Schools, are the religion and Philosophy of Masonry. –p193
- The Kabalah is the key of the occult sciences; and the Gnostics, were born of the Kabalists. –p441
- So Masonry jealously conceals its secrets, and intentionally leads conceited interpreters astray. –p77

So.... The Boy Scouts ➡ The Jungle Books ➡ Freemasonry ➡ Kabalah. What is the foundation of the Kabalah (mentioned 375 times in Morals and Dogma) according to Sovereign Grand Commander?

- The sources of our knowledge of the Kabalistic doctrines, are the books of Jezirah and Sohar, the former drawn up in the second century, and the latter a little later; but containing materials much older than themselves. In their most characteristic elements, they go back to the time of the exile. In them, as in the teachings of Zoroaster, -p186

Zoroaster was the religion in the Babylonian area (Iraq/Iran territory). The Kabalah foundation is firmly rooted in Babylon. Jeremiah’s advice in Jer 51:45 is still relevant today as it was when he wrote the verse:

NLT Jer 51:45 "Come out, my people, flee from Babylon. Save yourselves! Run from the LORD's fierce anger.

The priests of modern Zoroastrianism who are spreading Kabalahism worldwide are the Jews of Rev2:9 and 3:9.

KJV Rev 2:9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

KJV Rev 3:9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

I have to admit the Jungle books are a good adventure read but it should not be the foundational rock of a supposedly God fearing organization. The foundational rock of any God fearing organization should be Jesus Christ (1Cor10:4)– the rock which cannot be moved (Lk6:47-48).

RSV 1 Corinthians 10:4 and all drank the same supernatural drink. For they drank from the supernatural Rock which followed them, and the Rock was Christ.

RSV Luke 6:47-48

47 Every one who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like:
48 he is like a man building a house, who dug deep, and laid the foundation upon rock; and when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it had been well built.

I was saddened and thought there's no hope left for the Boy Scouts until I spoke with a rogue Scout leader who is going against the National leadership and is instructing his troop on biblical principles. They are being taught how to pray to Jesus Christ. Their supporting organization has warned them strictly not to stray from this foundation – of Jesus Christ.

I watched an example of his teaching methods and I said to myself – there is a remnant of troops out there that has Jesus as the foundation rock! Unfortunately a remnant is not the norm but there are alternatives to the Boy Scouts that parents can consider if a rogue troop is not near them: Trail Life USA or Royal Rangers.

Children need to be trained and guided to know Jesus and be protected from the bible states in Proverbs 22:6 to train up your child

RSV Proverbs 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.

It's finally sinking into me all the advice from other parents of the short time that a parent has the sole influence over the child. The bible has to be instilled early and often to get the foundation set before the waves of the antichrist world work their spells in attempting to deceive the child into believing that the bible is a bunch of stories and not a history book.

Whether or not the Boy Scouts admit it - The Boy Scouts has its foundation in Babylon and has lost its Christian veneer with accepting homosexual scouts & antichrist religions. What one generation tolerates the next generation accepts and the Boy Scouts will continue to descend downward.

A parent has a few options:

- A parent can join a rogue troop if they know one in the area – of course this troop won't be advertised by the Boy Scouts.
- If a parents, along with the other parents, can take over their scout's troop and convert it to a rogue troop then that's great as well.
- A parent can pull their child out of the Boy Scouts and place them into one of the alternatives to Boy Scouts: Trail Life USA or Royal Rangers.
- A parent can use the material of the Boy Scouts and add Christianity in and teach their child without joining the Boy Scouts (my option).

My perspective is if the Boy Scouts wants homosexuals scouts and antichrist youth to try and pervert the innocent Jesus fearing youths - then it's time for parents to not give Babylon their children and their cash.

If you don't feed the beast the beast dies.

David O'Malley

Appendix: Ahab and Jezebel story in the Jungle

The boy, Mowgli, is abandoned by his parents and the boy wandered into a wolf den. The wolves see an opportunity and decide to keep him knowing that he would be useful later.

The Mother wolf is called Raksha or “the demon” similar to Jezebel who had an evil spirit. Queen Jezebel’s husband, King Ahab, went along with his wife.

This section of the story brought thoughts of the capture of men/women by Jezebel – turning them into wolves or beast which Jeremiah describes as those without knowledge. These captured individuals are trained and when the beast leaders need them then they are used – exactly how Mowgli life was played out in this book.

"Shere Khan does us great honor," said Father Wolf, but his eyes were very angry. "What does Shere Khan need?" "My quarry. A man's cub went this way," said Shere Khan. "Its parents have run off. Give it to me." Shere Khan had jumped at a woodcutter's campfire, as Father Wolf had said, and was furious from the pain of his burned feet. But Father Wolf knew that the mouth of the cave was too narrow for a tiger to come in by. Even where he was, Shere Khan's shoulders and forepaws were cramped for want of room, as a man's would be if he tried to fight in a barrel.

"The Wolves are a free people," said Father Wolf. "They take orders from the Head of the Pack, and not from any striped cattle-killer. The man's cub is ours—to kill if we choose."

"Ye choose and ye do not choose! What talk is this of choosing? By the bull that I killed, am I to stand nosing into your dog's den for my fair dues? It is I, Shere Khan, who speak!"

The tiger's roar filled the cave with thunder. Mother Wolf shook herself clear of the cubs and sprang forward, her eyes, like two green moons in the darkness, facing the blazing eyes of Shere Khan.

"And it is I, Raksha [The Demon], who answers. The man's cub is mine, Lungri—mine to me! He shall not be killed. He shall live to run with the Pack and to hunt with the Pack; and in the end, look you, hunter of little naked cubs—frog-eater—fish-killer—he shall hunt thee! Now get hence, or by the Sambhur that I killed (I eat no starved cattle), back thou goest to thy mother, burned beast of the jungle, lamer than ever thou camest into the world! Go!"

Father Wolf looked on amazed. He had almost forgotten the days when he won Mother Wolf in fair fight from five other wolves, when she ran in the Pack and was not called The Demon for compliment's sake. Shere Khan might have faced Father Wolf, but he could not stand up against Mother Wolf, for he knew that where he was she had all the advantage of the ground, and would fight to the death. So he backed out of the cave mouth growling, and when he was clear he shouted:

"Each dog barks in his own yard! We will see what the Pack will say to this fostering of man-cubs. The cub is mine, and to my teeth he will come in the end, O bush-tailed thieves!"

Mother Wolf threw herself down panting among the cubs, and Father Wolf said to her gravely:

"Shere Khan speaks this much truth. The cub must be shown to the Pack. Wilt thou still keep him, Mother?"

"Keep him!" she gasped. "He came naked, by night, alone and very hungry; yet he was not afraid! Look, he has pushed one of my babes to one side already. And that lame butcher would have killed him and would have run off to the Waingunga while the villagers here hunted through all our lairs in revenge! Keep him? Assuredly I will keep him. Lie still, little frog. O thou Mowgli—for Mowgli the Frog I will call thee—the time will come when thou wilt hunt Shere Khan as he has hunted thee."

"It was well done," said Akela. "Men and their cubs are very wise. He may be a help in time."

"Truly, a help in time of need; for none can hope to lead the Pack forever," said Bagheera.

Akela said nothing. He was thinking of the time that comes to every leader of every pack when his strength goes from him and he gets feebler and feebler, till at last he is killed by the wolves and a new leader comes up—to be killed in his turn.

"Take him away," he said to Father Wolf, "and train him as befits one of the Free People."

And that is how Mowgli was entered into the Seonee Wolf Pack for the price of a bull and on Baloo's good word.
