

Parable of the ant – Oct 25, 2015

Jesus often used parables when speaking to the crowds to describe a concept and then later explained the parables meaning to the apostles. We have been going thru an experience over the last few years that fit perfectly for a parable – the parable of the ant.

The bible mentions the ant in Prov6:6-8 in how diligent and wise it is. It doesn't slack off but works consistently store up food and to grow its colony.

RSV Proverbs 6:6-8

6 Go to the ant, O sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise. 7 Without having any chief, officer or ruler, 8 she prepares her food in summer, and gathers her sustenance in harvest.

We have been battling an ant invasion in the house for several years. Last year, 2014, was the worse year of invasion when every day the army of ants would emerge from multiple places along the walls in various rooms in the house. They were crawling on the bed and clothes...

How the ants got to the various points along the wall was a feat in insect tunneling engineering itself. The house should be an impregnable fortress against any insect attack since the location of attack was a concrete earth shelter house.

The barrier that the ants had to breach was a 2 foot wide by 18 inches deep concrete Footing that was laid around the perimeter of the house. A 11 inch thick continuous concrete Wall was poured on top the footings with a dome concrete ceiling. A 1/8 insulating material was laid down before the 4" floating concrete Floor was poured in order to keep the floor from getting cold in winter time.

Freshly poured concrete spreads out and is tight around the walls but over time, concrete will shrink and crack as it hardens and dries. The concrete floor dried and pulled away from the wall in some places 1/16" to 1/8". It wasn't long before the ant scouts discovered the breach in the fortress walls.

I believe the insulation material created a highway that allowed the ants access to all the cracks along the wall.

A caulk barrier was squeezed into the space between the floor and wall in 2004 and it helped stem the tide – a temporary victory. The caulk became brittle over the following decade and it lost its adhesion to the floor or was chewed thru and another round of invasion occurred.

When one approach doesn't work then you have to figure a new plan of defense.

All the caulk along the crack between the floor and wall were scraped off and pulled out and a stiffer more permanent filler was used – “SteelStik” epoxy by JB Weld. The compound was mixed and then forced down into the crack which then hardened. The liquid “J-B Weld” epoxy version was also used to reach hard to get to cracks or to allow it to run down the crack to seal it below the surface. Fantastic products! I have what seems to be wheel barrels full of both products.

The battle was won but the war wasn't over. The enemy regrouped and went about testing the weak areas that it could exploit.

The ants returned. This time they crawled from cracks underneath 2x4 dry walled walls attached to the concrete wall.

Drilling and cutting away the drywall/wood over/around the crack was required to get to the cracks. All the wooden walls attached to the concrete wall had to be partially torn thru to access the cracks.

During this time other cracks became known. A concrete vibrator was lowered down into the concrete, during the wall concrete pour, to shake the concrete to an even consistency and to close air pockets. The concrete workers didn't shake close all the air pockets and the ants found these weak areas of the wall. The ants chewed their way thru the plaster (that was used to cover the air pockets) and they came poured out. These pathways were up to 6 inches up from the floor.

All the plaster that was filled into the concrete hole was removed and more JB weld products were used to plug the cracks.

In a war ground troops are always supplemented with air dropped troops. While the ground ants were creating a diversion the flanking army of ants commenced the invasion from above. An earth sheltered house has 6+ feet of dirt on top of the house – perfect for many colonies of ants. The ants made raiding runs into the house from an extended supply line/trading network.

After careful examination around the house, 2 places on a cinder block retaining wall the mortar were cracked and loose allowing the ants to set up a patrol base in the soil behind the wall. From the crack in the cinder block wall the line of ants stretched 30 feet to the roof of the house. The ants crawled thru the ceiling insulation about 20 feet, down the wall and emerged at the bottom of the inside wall.

The mortar was knocked out and new mortar replaced. A 50 foot long by 3.5 foot deep trench has been dug to close off the soil side crack – I have another 4 feet down to go before I can paint on several layers of Vulkem 201 (non-organic sealant that won't break down like tar) which will block off any ants from crawling thru from unknown cracks.

At some point you have all you can take and you can't take any more. You desire not just to patch holes but to go on a counter offensive attack. With success in sealing the cracks along the wall inside the house I was then allowed time to initiate the focused offensive campaign.

Another product that has been very effective in the battle with the ants has been Medina's Orange oil. It has become our multi-purpose-go-to ant killing spray when diluted with water in a spray bottle. It is deadly and it operates quickly. The spray bottle can be set for mist which covers a wide area or it can be set for stream. Stream setting allows bunker busting to happen. The stream burrows into the soft ant mound hitting the queen and ant eggs. The stream is also effective for spraying on the long axis of the ant trail (like an A-10 wart hog strafing a line of enemy tanks and vehicles).

Many times ant mounds along the house have been stirred up to get the ants pouring out then an alternating layering of mist and streams are applied liberally.

The ant attack from above spurred me to remove a 30 foot section of roof in order to rebuild it more securely using a generous amount of roof tar to seal the roof sheeting to the rafters. Was I over doing it? Yes, but it created a sealed barrier preventing any further inroads from that area.

The attacks have been slowing down since any ant detected within the house activates a rapid response team to track the ant to the crack to plug it up.

The ants under the concrete I can't wipe out because I can't get to them. A constant vigilance is required of the floor/wall to ensure no ants break thru a weak spot.

We had a line of ants exiting a bottom of the non-concrete portion of the house. I couldn't find their mound or where they were entering the house so another weapon was deployed.

Give them what they want and poison them. The ants entering the house are sugar ants so a boric acid/sugar solution was placed next to their exit from the wall. They will go nuts with this solution – they will all line up to take a slurp of the sweet drink both big and small.

Boric acid/sugar solution

1 cup of water
6 teaspoons of sugar
2.5 teaspoons of boric acid

Mix well and pour into a plastic cup (cut down to an inch high) with masking tape to allow the ants to crawl up the sides.

Keep away from pets and children.

The size of the invading ant force will determine how long it will take before all are dead. It is amazing to see the magnitude of ants feeding on the cup knowing that they were behind the wall and were once that would have been crawling around the house.

Taking care of the ants and all their entrances has created another blessing. Their companions are no longer coming in as well. Who are their companions? Scorpions, spiders ranging from the tiny ones to garden spiders and tarantulas (we found one crawling under the covers of the bed), centipedes (a rubber hammer to the head finishes off this pest), mice and snakes (2 rat snakes and 2 rattlesnakes).

The interpretation of the parable.

The concrete is your Christian walk. The concrete is held with a form when poured – this is the bible commandments which if you stay within then you will prosper. The Rebar within the concrete is your studying of the bible. The more you study, fellowship and apply what you have been taught the stronger Christian you will be when the tempter comes.

The cracks allowing ants in are doorways that have been opened by the person, their parents or curses from others. These doorways allow demons/unclean spirits enter the body to torment the person. What are the doorways that can be opened? See attachment 1.

The ants, scorpions, spiders, centipedes and snakes are the tormentors. They come in thru the open doorways to afflict the body. They always bring other demons in as well to cause havoc on that person. The ants under the concrete are demons waiting to enter any doors that get opened.

How can you determine which demons are afflicting you? By taking notice of what is going thru your mind, what actions you find difficult to stop doing or health problems – all could point to a demonic source. See attachment 2 for a sample listing of common demons found afflicting Christians – the deliverance ministry says on average 36 of these are removed during a deliverance session.

The filling in the cracks, digging the trench, replacing the roof and filling in the mortar represents being diligent in closing all possible open doors to demons, breaking generational curses and cutting ungodly soul ties.

The boric acid and orange oil spray represent expelling the individual demons listed on attachment 2 sending them to the feet of Jesus for judgment so they can't return or infest some other person.

The book that covers these actions is from www.delmin.org "Doing the supernatural works of Jesus".

This book has the latest techniques to cast out the demonic realm from within you and to repair the walls to prevent another reinvasion attempt. This book has many time proven weapons incorporated from other exorcists who have used them successfully.

I would recommend that if you are interested in this book that you purchase the book plus DVD package since the DVD contains some information which is not in the book:

Christians are called to be soldiers for Jesus here on earth. Satan and his demons have far too long been taking over Christian governments, Christian churches, schools, dividing families and taking over the thoughts and actions of Christians. How do you fight back? Expel the demons out of the person and cast them to the feet of Jesus.

The demons removed from earth this way cleans up one tiny part of earth. If all Christians and churches are doing the same then the communities, cities, states, nations and the world can be restored back to Jesus Christ. Satan can't operate without foot soldiers who are demons and if they have been ripped out of their dwelling places and placed at Jesus' feet then the world would be in peace.

That is only if you believe that a Christian has the power to do such things.

Luk 10:19 "Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will injure you.

Our Authority:

Luke 10:19

“Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions and over ALL the power of the enemy; and nothing shall by any means hurt you.” (Memorize and quote daily)

Mark 16:17-18

“And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name they shall cast out devils; they will speak with new tongues; they will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they shall recover”

John 14:12

“I say unto you, anyone who believes in me, the works that I do; he shall do also; and greater works than these shall he do because I go to the Father.”

How Christians are tormented by evil spirits... we have three parts. (1 Thessalonians 5:23) Our spirit, which is secure in Jesus, along with a body and a soul (mind, will, emotions), which can be tormented and influenced. The evil spirits are bothering Christians in the last two parts.

Door Openers:

1. IGNORING THE NEED TO BE BORN AGAIN: John 3:3; Romans 10:9-11, 10:13

2. UNREPENTED SIN: Proverbs 28:13, 1 John 1:9

3. UNFORGIVENESS: Mark 11:25-26; Matthew 18:34-35 Forgive others and ourselves. This is the BIG door opener! Unforgiveness is a major blockage to deliverance and healing. Jesus said if we don't forgive, we will be turned to the tormentors.

4. HONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER: Deuteronomy 5:16; Ephesians 6:1-3 (So you will have long life and your life will go well)

5. WORKS OF THE FLESH: Galatians 5:19-21; 2 Timothy 2:22

6. PRIDE: 1 Timothy 3:6; Proverbs 8:13

7. WITCHCRAFT/SECRET SOCIETIES/FALSE RELIGIONS/YOGA:

Deut. 18:10-14, Proverbs 18:21

8. DRUGS, ALCOHOL: Ephesians 4:27

9. TRAUMA: Romans 12:2, Psalm 147:3, “He heals the broken hearted and binds up their wounds.” Emotional wounds of the past: being abused, severe fright, abandonment, rejection, neglect, tragedies, bad memories, (inner healing is needed.). Jesus renews our minds when we declare the Word of God promises.

10. HYPNOSIS: Romans 6:16 When we are hypnotized, we yield our mind to others.

11. IDOLATRY: Exodus 20:3

Things, money, hobbies, job, relationships, drugs, alcohol, food, sports, etc.

12. REBELLION AND DISOBEDIENCE TOWARD GOD: Deuteronomy 28, 29, 30;
Galatians 3:13

13. INHERITANCE: Nehemiah 9:2 Confess and repent for the sins of the forefathers.

14. CURSES: Proverbs 18:21; Mark 11:23

By others, ourselves, or by oaths.

15. UNGODLY SOUL TIES: 1 Samuel 18:1, Ephesians 4:27

Breaking ungodly soul ties Repeat the following:

1. Jesus, I forgive (person's name) for all that has happened, all that has gone on. Because You say that I must forgive to be forgiven. I make a decision to forgive (him/her). I forgive myself for the parts I may have played here. and I ask You, Lord, to forgive me. I take any negative or tormenting feelings and unforgiveness that I carry toward _____, and I put these into my hands (Cup your hands together). Any hurts, bitterness, resentment, anger, offense, feelings of abandonment, betrayal, neglect, rejection, deception, manipulation, control, or judgments. (Name any other negative emotions.) So here they are, Lord; I give them to You. (Lift your hands up to Jesus and give them to Him. Certainly if we give them to Jesus, He will take them every time). 1 Peter 5:7 Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.
1. In Jesus' name, I destroy, cancel, vacate and break any judgments I may have made and stated against _____ or myself. These judgments are now broken, null and void and I am free. Father, please forgive me for pronouncing judgment on _____. I leave judgment to You. I command all evil spirits that have come through these judgments to go to the feet of Jesus. Demons of the judgments, in the name of Jesus, GO!
2. In Jesus' name, I also break the power of any curses or judgments _____ may have spoken over me. I cancel any curses or judgments I might have spoken over _____ or myself. (If a parent, then generational curses must be broken – say the following:) Please forgive me and my ancestors for all ungodliness. I cancel, remove and uproot all iniquity from all my ancestors down through my life and my seed, spirit, soul and body. I command the very substance of iniquity to be removed from all parts of my godly, soul and spirit in Jesus Name. I cancel any ungodly vows that I may have made.
1. I also terminate, in Jesus' Name, any ungodly soul ties that exist between _____ and me. I do this spiritually, physically, mentally, emotionally, financially, (sexually) and I command all evil spirits that have come through these soul ties to go to the feet of Jesus. Control spirit coming through _____, and any associated demon spirits GO. You are not my friend. Demons of the curses, in the name of Jesus, GO! (Stay engaged until you feel the spirits have departed.)
1. MINISTER: Ask the person to close their eyes and relax. Begin speaking: Lord Jesus, I think _____ (name of person) needs some hugs. As Your child, Lord, would You put your arms around _____ and hold (him/her), comforting, assuring, loving and bringing Your Truth to him or her about this relationship, so that any lies he/she has carried all these years can be clarified. Your truth, Lord is what we ask. (Now have them just sit there and listen. Sometimes they hear really well, others don't hear anything, but they seem to experience a peace that was not there before. It is obvious the Lord spoke into their spirit man with a healing.)

Keys for staying free

Jesus used deliverance ministry to bring freedom to those oppressed by the devil. After being set free, paying careful attention to the following points will allow you to continue to live in freedom and maintain healing:

1. Read the Word out loud each day. II Timothy 3:16-17
2. Pray (talk to God conversationally) every day. Ephesians 6:18
3. Have Christian fellowship. Matthew 18:19-20
4. Keep the doors closed. Galatians 5:16-26
5. Resist the devil, speaking the Word. James 4:7
6. Strengthen your spirit man by confessing or declaring daily the positives, the Word of God and declaring the promises of God. Mark 11:22-25; Ephesians 1:3-23; 3:16-20
7. Make godly choices. Deuteronomy 30:19
Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. John 8:32
